"SINCE WHEN

are you BUYING MY SUITS,
madam?"

Here's something to try on your husband. After he rushes off to work... reach back in the closet and bring out that dingy, droopy suit that he said was all done for. Send it to us for a Zoric Drycleaning. We'll bring the colour back to life... soften that harsh wool. (Zoric cleans out the deep-rooted dirt, you know... gives old suits a show-window look.) Then hang it back in the closet and let him discover his "new" suit for himself (For which favour he'll probably treat you to dinner and a show that very night!). Well, why not?

Victor Cat About Town
Notorious Gossip

Charles Brown of Chatham, Ontario, just 95, boasts that he has never taken a drink, smoked, gambled, lost an hour of sleep or visited a doctor. He was fifty before he learned to read or write.

One night recently Dr. M. E. Rumwell of Palo Alto, California, went into his garage and found a stork perched on his car. Next day his daughter-in-law gave birth to an eight-pound boy.

Dr. Joseph F. Kaspar, sixty, former State Senator, fresh from a year in the Nebraska Penitentiary, is recommending it to every one. "That's a wonderful place," he says. "I gained fifty pounds while I was there."

To cheat the barber, Prof. W. T. Astbury, of Leeds University, England, advises: "Expose your head to X-rays for six hours, then to steam for two hours. Your hair will contract to two-thirds of its original length and you won't need a hair-cut for a considerable time."

"Mumme," asked a little boy at a concert, at the end of the interval, "have the orchestra had something to eat?"

"I don't know," said the mother. "I think they have," said the boy. "It says on the programme, 'Part two will be given by a fuller orchestra.'"

A young man in college was applying pressure for more money from home.

"I cannot understand why you call yourself a kind father," he said, "when you haven't sent me a cheque in three weeks. What kind of kindness do you call that?"

"That's unremitting kindness!" wrote the father in his next letter.

The hotel was about the worst in the country, as the two visitors soon discovered. After an appalling dinner they retired, disgruntled, to their bedroom. Upon entering, one sniffed suspiciously. "Well," he said, "if that's not the limit. There's gas escaping." "Can you blame it?" retorted his friend.

Pilkington retired from the city and went to live in the country. In due course a neighbour called on his wife. She said: "I hear your husband has taken up hunting. Do you approve of that?" "I don't know about approving," said the sportsman's wife, "but it makes life more exciting. We never know which to expect home first, my husband or the horse."

A blushing bride entered the men's department of a big store. "I want a birthday present for my husband, but I don't know what to buy." "Why not a nice silk muffler for evening wear?" "Oh, dear, no! My husband never goes out at night!" "Well, you might get it for next year, madam. He will then."

GERMAN TRADE WITH U.S.

Serious Blow By Roosevelt

HEAVY INCREASE ON EXPORTS

Washington, July 11. In order to combat the effect of the German Government export subsidies, the United States Treasury has announced additional duties ranging from 23 per cent to 56 per cent to be imposed on certain German exports from midnight.

The increased duties are introduced by the President of the United States on the ground that Germany discriminated against American goods as a result of which there has been a loss of $1,000,000 per annum on trade with Germany.

The German commercial delegation which has been negotiating unsuccessfully here for a temporary German-American trade agreement will leave for home immediately.

KING'S CUP AIR RACE

Win For Charles Gardner

London, July 11.

The King's Cup Air Race was won by Charles Gardner, flying a Percival Vega Gull machine, with a handicap of 25 minutes and 33 seconds.

Lieut. Tommy Rose, last year's winner, was second with a handicap of 11 minutes and 25 seconds. Flight-Lieut. J. B. Wilson, handicap 12 minutes 31 seconds, was third. Captain Percival, flying the Duke of Kent's machine from scratch, covered the last lap at 211 miles per hour.

The race was flown over a course 26 miles long based on Hatfield and the competitors made twelve circuits.

British Wireless adds that Charles Gardner's average speed was 164 miles per hour.

GREAT PEACE GATHERING

Ex-Servicemen On Pilgrimage

London, July 11.

An enormous peace gathering of ex-servicemen from all parts of the world will take part in a pilgrimage to Fort Donauw, near Verdun, to-morrow in honour of those who died in the great war.

The British contingent arrived in Paris to-day on its way to attend the ceremony. A big party from Canada and Australia is also participating. The Government appropriated £40,000 for the purpose of providing accommodation and other facilities to the participants.

The climate, hard and nervous work, late nights, they can all be to blame—but you want to know how to become your old self again. Why not start taking Sanatogen—it's really great stuff! It's made just for people like you, and I know from long experience that it will do you a lot of good. You have asked too much from your nerves, and with Sanatogen you replace the lost energy quickly."

Over 25,000 physicians are of the opinion that taking Sanatogen is the easy and logical way back to real health and vitality. Why not give Sanatogen a trial? Every chemist sells it. Start taking it now, then you will soon notice its remarkable influence on your health and vitality.

FRENCH GUN SECRET

Alleged Delivery To Russia

CHAMBER SCENE

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)
Paris, July 10.

The alleged delivery to the Soviet Union of the latest French invention for aerial warfare, a new quick-firing gun for airplanes, projecting small calibre shells at a rate of 100 per minute, was subject to an interpellation in the Chamber on Friday by the Right Wing Deputy Kerell. Kerell asserted that the French Air Minister had delivered a sample of this weapon to Soviet Russia, although the weapon was still secret and being tested, while samples of similar, though not so efficient guns had been given to England and Czechoslovakia. The Air Minister, M. Cot answered that he had not given order to have the sample sent, for the simple reason that he had no sample.

The Air Minister then criticised Kerell for bringing up a debate of such a nature in the Chamber, declaring that the Chamber was not the place for the Air Ministry to discuss its technical matters. He did not accuse Kerell of treasonable conduct, but thought that the outcome of such a debate could have been foreseen. People would now believe that a military alliance existed between France and the Soviet Union, while he had already stated that it did not exist.—Transocean News Service.

CONFIDENCE VOTE

Paris, July 10.
A vote in the Chamber arising from an Opposition interpellation, alleging that the Government had furnished the Soviet with the plans of a secret aircraft gun, resulted in a motion of confidence in the Government being carried by 378 votes to 10.

The gun mentioned is reported to be able to fire eight hundred shots per minute, being invented by a Swiss working for a private firm.

Only six such guns are said to exist.—Reuter.

Leading British airmen piloted twenty-six machines in the elimination contest for the King's Cup air race to-day. The competitors are divided into three groups, according to engine power, and the qualifiers will pass into the final, which is being flown to-morrow on handicap terms.

To-day's race consisted of two circuits of 612 miles, the course starting and finishing at Hatfield and passing through Norwich, Nottingham, Bristol, Shoreham and Coventry.

Most of the competitors have experienced stormy weather, and those who have been forced to retire include Mrs. Mollison and W. L. Hope, who has won the Cup three times.

The fastest time was recorded by the Duke of Kent's New Gull, piloted by E. W. Percival, which averaged 171.75 miles an hour. In addition to this machine, the fourteen which qualified included Lord Wakefield's T.K.2, piloted by R. J. Wright; Lady Wakefield's miles Hawk, piloted by Flight Lieut. A bomb was thrown to-day in the precincts of the Police Headquarters of the city, but little damage was suffered.

CZECH DEFENCE MEASURES

Wide Powers Over Industry

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)
Prague, July 10.

Three annexes to the recently passed Defence of the Realm Act were published on Friday, the most important one being the definition of the "strategic key industries." Practically every industry in Czechoslovakia is declared to be of military importance, all basic industries coming under this category. The law also affects all gas, water and electricity works and all transport undertakings, all hospitals and similar institutions and the organisations for the purchase of raw material.

The industries coming under the law may not employ foreigners without first obtaining the permission of the military authorities, which can be withdrawn at any time without reason given. Nor may they employ persons, designed as "politically unreliable" by the authorities. If a proprietor, upon being informed that an employee is "politically unreliable," does not immediately dismiss him, his business may be taken out of his hands by the state.

The special provisions affecting all concerns declared "military important" do not apply only in war time, but come into force immediately, thus entitling the military authorities to exercise a wide power of supervision of the technical management of the concerns, and special regulations are there to regulate the rights of the proprietor and the worker.—Transocean News Service.

ITALIANS KILLED BY TRIBESMEN

Twelve Airmen Lost

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)
Rome, July 10.

After the first report about the massacre of the Italian airmen by Abyssinian marauders that four Italians were killed, the semi-official agency "Stefani" now reports that altogether 12 members of the Air Force lost their lives, and two native interpreters also met the same fate.

The "Giornale d'Italia" commenting on this report, says that incidents of this kind are bound to follow a colonial conquest, and are therefore of no great significance, since the sole motive for the attack was robbery.—Transocean News Service.

HERR TAUBER MARRIED

Couple Mobbed

London, June 22.

Herr Richard Tauber, the operatic tenor and film star, and Miss Diana Napier, the British actress, were married at the Marylebone register office on Saturday.

A big crowd that gathered outside the office to cheer Herr Tauber on his arrival, and when he emerged with his bride after the ceremony he was nearly mobbed. Telegraph boys who came with congratulatory messages found themselves hemmed in and lined up with the police to form a smiling guard of honour.

Herr Tauber, who is 44, was described upon notice of the wedding, was given as Richard Denemy-Tauber, of Portland Place, London, W., and Miss Napier's address was given as Villa Capri, Elstree.

She arrived with her mother, Mrs. Ellis. The bridegroom, accompanied by his father, Mr. Richard Tauber, arrived twenty minutes before the ceremony was due to begin. Other early arrivals were Lord and Lady Queensberry, who signed the register.

After the ceremony it was some minutes before the bride and bridegroom were able to reach their car, and even then they had to be escorted singly by police officers through the crowd which had surged forward to greet them. They left for a week-end honeymoon and are returning to work on their film to-day.

OXFORD HONOURS MR. EDEN AND PROFESSOR GILBERT MURRAY

SMALL BUT DISTINGUISHED LIST

Oxford, June 24.

Oxford's list of Eminent honours to-day was small but distinguished. Mr. Eden, whom the Public Orator hailed in Latin as a second Hercules who had wrestled with lions and dragon, receives a D.C.L., as does also Professor Gilbert Murray, Field Marshal Sir Philip Chetwode, and Cardinal Serelli, the great authority on canon law.

There was one D.Sc., Professor E. D. Adrian, Fellow of Trinity, Cambridge, and Foulerton Professor of the Royal Society; and two D.Litts., Mr. E. V. Lucas and an honoured Oxford veteran, still recently Provost of Queen's, the Rev. E. M. Walker.

Presenting Mr. Eden, the Public Orator, Mr. Cyril Bailey, said his name suggested Paradise, and it was indeed his aim to lead the nations into the paradise of peace. Everyone knew, he said, of the storms he had endured in these difficult times. Like a second Hercules he had wrestled with lions and dragon. So long as the iniquitous war was continued, the lightning of his day, when the sky was still black with clouds, wisdom, patience, and courage were needed, but they believed

The French withdrawal of the guarantee of assistance to Britain in the event of war has been received with great satisfaction here, as the step reached is considered more important than reduction of British naval strength in the Mediterranean.

ATHLETES IN ACTION

British Olympic Trials

MANY RECORDS BROKEN

London, July 11. Despite the fact that the track was still in a very heavy condition, 45,000 spectators were present when the amateur athletic championships, constituting the British Olympic trials, were captured at the White City Stadium to-day.

The Discus Throw, was won by Prendergast with a throw of 141 ft. 5 ins. Reavell Carter was second, a quarter of an inch behind, and Bell third, with a throw of 134 ft. 7 ins. Prendergast and Carter both beat the English native record of 140 feet.

Drake won the Throwing the Hammer event with 151 ft. 9 ins. Smith being second with 142 ft. 8 ins., the third place going to Monahan (Ireland) whose distance was 141 ft. 6 ins.

The Javelin Throw went to Vanderpoll (Holland) who won the event with a throw of 189 ft. 2 ins. Wilson was second with 180 ft. 4 ins., while Turner was third with 159 ft. 9 ins.

Powell won the half mile covering the distance in 1 min. 54.7 secs. He was a yard in front of Handley, who only managed to oust Kucharski (Poland) from second place by half a yard.

De Bruyn (Holland) won the Putting the Weight event with 46 ft. 2 ins. Howland gained second place with 45 ft. and Carver was third, his effort being 41 ft. 7 ins.

Britain, however, won the Pole Vault, Webster setting up a new English native record with a leap of 12 ft. 9 ins. Woodhouse of Australia was second clearing 12 ft. 6 ins. and Leach was third with 11 ft. 9 ins.

Another English record was equalled in the 100 Yards when Osendrap (Holland), breasted the tape in 9.8 secs. with Sweeney second and Holmes third. The Dutchman won by a matter of inches only, while half a yard separated the second and third competitors.

ANOTHER RECORD

Another English record was broken when in the three miles Ward clocked 14 mins. 15.8 secs. to beat Close by 25 yards, while Reeve was 10 yards behind the second man.

Traynor cleared 23 ft. 2 ins. to win the long jump from Breach, whose effort was registered as 22 ft. 8 ins., the third place going to Duncan at 22 ft. 7 ins.

Then 120 Yards Hurdles resulted in a win for D. O. Finlay by three yards in 14.6 secs., which represents another new British record. The second and third places were filled by Thornton and Pillbrow respectively.

Sweeney, who came second to Osendrap in the 100 Yards, made no mistake in the 220 Yards, which he won in 21.9 secs. He was 11 yards in front of Holmes, who beat Van Beveren (Holland) by about two feet for second place.

One of the finest struggles in the meeting was seen when Wooderson clocked 4 mins. 15 secs. for the mile to beat Jack Lovelock by one yard. Graham, who finished third, was rather out of the picture, being 10 yards behind Lovelock.

HURDLES THRILL

The quarter mile hurdle race provided the spectators with another big thrill, Sheffield, Watson (Australia) and Brown running together for the whole distance, the race finally ending in the order mentioned above. Sheffield's time was 55.8 secs. Watson being only a yard behind the winner, while Brown was half a yard behind the Australian.

First place in the High Jump, went to Australia, Metcalfe clearing 5 ft. 1 in., with Brasser (Holland), who jumped 6 feet, taking second place. West was third with a jump of 5 ft. 10 ins.

Evenson, Ginty and Wylie finished in the order named in the two miles steeplechase, the winner's time being 10 mins. 24 secs. He was three yards in front of Ginty, who was 20 yards ahead of Wylie.

The splendid time of 46.8 secs. was returned by A.G.K. Brown for the quarter mile, Brown finishing

EARLIER RESULTS

London, July 10.

The amateur athletic championships at the White City, constituting the Olympic trials, continued in the rain to-day. The track was heavy. Nevertheless, records were broken.

In the two miles walk (final), the holder of the championship, Cooper of Great Britain, won by sixty yards in the time of 13 minutes 50 seconds. Bernard of Latvia and Churcher of Great Britain were second and third.

Stothard, holder of the British half mile crown, and an Olympic hope, failed to qualify for the final in this event. Lovelock and Wooderson qualified for the mile final.

In the final of the six mile race, Naji of Poland led Burns and Potts of Great Britain home in 29 minutes 45.4 seconds, which was better than the native English record of 30 minutes 22.2 seconds. It was a cleverly judged race, Naji spurring in the back stretch and winning by five yards. Eaton, the British Olympic hope, was out of form and was not placed.

In the hop-step-and-jump final, Metcalfe, of Australia, broke the English record of 48 feet 9 inches, travelling over 48 feet 5 inches of ground. Dickinson of Australia also topped the English record, doing 47 feet 11 inches, and Boyce, of Ireland, did 45 feet 1 inch.

LEAGUE'S 'GET OUT'

KILLING HOPE OF EMPEROR

'No Abyssinia'

London, June 28.
"This is a journey of hope," declared the Emperor of Abyssinia, as, amid a throng of cheering women, he climbed into a train in Victoria Station, London, for the first stage of his journey to Geneva.
But already last night Geneva was plotting to make his Journey of Hope a Journey of Disappointment.

For Geneva, has discovered a "get out" that will save the League's face on sanctions, and smooth over the path for Italy's return.
When the League Council meets to-day to begin the burial of sanctions, this is the "plot" that will be revealed:—

After a discussion on the principle of not recognising Italy's conquest, the Assembly would appoint a Committee of Jurists to study
"the special case of Abyssinia."

This Committee would report to the September meeting of the Assembly that the Abyssinian problem is not analogous to the case of Manchukuo because the Abyssinian State, unlike China, has ceased to exist.

Therefore, it would be suggested,
Abyssinia's name should be removed from the list of League members,
thus permitting Italy to resume her seat.

CHILE'S LEAD

It is understood that, in its general outlines, this procedure has the support of League officials and the more important League members, but it is expected that the smaller Powers may attempt to prevent it being carried out.

It is learned that the Chilean delegation will take the lead in proposing the raising of sanctions.

The seven neutral League Powers have decided to support this.
Mr. Anthony Eden, M. Yvon Del-boe, the French Foreign Minister, and the Emperor left Paris in the same train for Geneva just before midnight.

The Princess Tsaiah, daughter of the Emperor, together with the Crown Prince of Abyssinia, and the Duke of Harar, arrived at Worthington from London last night. They are staying at an hotel on the front.

Worthington is only a few miles from Ferring-on-Sea, where Mr. J.
H. Thomas's home is.

ROUSING SCOTS WELCOME FOR THE NEGUS

Thousands Cheer Him
In Glasgow

WHEN HE ARRIVES
WITH FAMILY

London, June 20.
Thousands of Glasgow workers paused for a few minutes on their way home last night to give a real Scotch welcome to the Emperor of Abyssinia and members of his family when they arrived at the Central Station on their first visit to Scotland.

As the Negus stepped from the first class carriage on the Royal Scot, in which the party had travelled from London, there was a cheer from those on the platform, who included a number of the Emperor's fellow-passengers on the train from London.

With the minimum of ceremony
Lord Inverclyde, who will act as the Emperor's host during the week-end, was presented to Halle Sassie, and after a number of other presentations the party walked slowly down the platform and entered the waiting cars.

As they drove off rapidly along the station on the way to Castle Wemyss, Wemyss Bay, cheer after cheer rang from thousands of people in the centre of the station, who were held back by wooden barricades.

The Emperor was dressed in a light fawn cloak, grey trousers, brown suede shoes, and carried a bowler hat, while on one of the fingers of his left hand was a large gold ring.

Princess Tsaiah, the daughter of the Negus, was in European attire,
as were her brothers, the Crown Prince and the Duke of Harar, and also Dr. Martin, Ethiopian Minister in London. Several members of the Emperor's suite, however,
wore semi-Abyssinian dress.

TO VISIT BEAUTY SPOTS
The Emperor and his party will be the guests of Lord Inverclyde at Wemyss Castle during the week-end, and it is expected that they will return to London on Monday. While in Scotland they will take the opportunity of visiting well-known beauty spots, and a private yacht has been placed at their disposal in which they may cruise on the Firth of Clyde.

Two members of the special branch of Scotland Yard were with the party, having travelled in the train from London.
As the Royal Scot left London
in the morning the Emperor sat with his children in a non-smoking compartment, and bowed respectfully to the greetings of those in the station.

'WE'RE MARRIED'
SAYS PAULETTE
GODDARD

New York, June 22.

Paulette Goddard has told her relatives that she has been secretly married to Charlie Chaplin.

Thus Hollywood's latest matrimonial mystery is at last nearing solution.

Intent on solving it completely Paulette's grandfather, aged seventy-eight, and her step-grandmother are planning a trip to Hollywood to obtain the full story from her own lips.

Thoroughly tired of mere rumours, her grandfather started an active campaign of investigation by asking relatives in California to visit Paulette in Hollywood with the direct question,
"Are you married?"

She is said to have answered the emissaries that she was married and that the secrecy was due to the rule in the Chaplin studios that leading ladies must be unmarried.

Paulette said that Chaplin had planned to announce their mar-

SILLY BILLIES

AT THE ALHAMBRA

"Silly Billies," now showing at the Alhambra Theatre with Wheeler and Woolsey, contains good and plenty of amusement. There is a feeling all the way through that the really big laughs must be just around the corner, and unfortunately they remain there, and are superseded by situations which for sheer amusement fail to achieve the success of "The Rainmakers," the last picture in which the comic couple were seen here. All the same, this does not mean that "Silly Billies" is not a picture worth seeing, for it certainly is. It only for the weird antics of Dr. "Painless" Pennington as he extracts a tooth from a murderous-looking bandit in not quite the most delicate manner. Stage coaches, pioneers on the look-out for gold, and Red Indians supply the background for the story, takes on a very amusing aspect as the couple are captured and emerge as fully-fledged Indians, complete with feathered head-dresses and war paint. Escaping from the Indians in an ingenious manner, they are anything but welcomed by their own people, who imagine them to be on the side of the enemy, and they are only saved from "stringing-up" by the Indians arriving to engage the pioneers' attention. The ensuing fight is fruitful of some amusing sequences.

FRISCO KID

"Frisko Kid," Warner Bros., thrilling tale of the glamorous Barbary Coast of old San Francisco, opens at the Star theatre to-day with an all star cast headed by James Cagney, Margaret Lindsay, Ricardo Cortez and Lili Damita.

The picture is set in the colorful background of the early fifties, when the waterfront at the Golden Gate was a flaming panorama of glided gambling halls and palaces of pleasure; when murder, arson, crimping and robbery was winked at by the authorities who derived huge revenues in bribes from the denizens of the underworld.

The characters are based on historic personages of the time who flocked to the city of gold from every port in the world—adventurers all, ready to risk their fortunes or their lives on the throw of a die.

Into this picturesque atmosphere comes a sailor, strong, purposeful, crude, ignorant, but a man of tremendous force and magnetic personality, who rises to be the master of the Coast, and who dares to fall in love with the most beautiful girl of San Francisco's highest society.

James Cagney and Margaret Lindsay, as the two characters, carry on this strange romance in the midst of a series of thrilling episodes when the city is rocked by terrific battles between the vigilantes and the denizens of the Coast.

More than two score talented actors have important roles in the picture while thousands take part in the gigantic riot scenes in which the dens of the waterfront are set ablaze. The leading characters, besides those mentioned include Donald Woods, Barton MacLane, George E. Stone, Joseph King, Robert McWade, Joseph Crehan, Robert Strange, Joseph Sawyer, Fred Kohler and Claudia Coleman.

"SANDERS OF THE RIVER"

AT THE KING'S

"Sanders of the River," which is proving a tremendous attraction at the King's Theatre to-day, is something quite new in film entertainment.

Based on the popular Edgar Wallace stories of the same title, it deals skilfully with British rule in Africa, a subject which hitherto has been conspicuously and surprisingly ignored by British film producers. It represents quite the most difficult film task ever attempted by a producer in this country, and that it succeeds so triumphantly is yet another tribute to the genius of the Korda brothers.

The story sets out to show that the way to control millions of untamed jungle dwellers is not by harshness and violence, but by making it obvious that their welfare is at the heart of the ruler. Loyalty brings its reward, and only open revolt brings punishment.

Leslie Banks and Paul Robeson are superb in the principal parts. It is difficult to decide whether one more admires the brilliant understatement of Banks' District Commissioner or the finely etched Bosambo and the really magnificent singing of Robeson.

Others prominent in the well-chosen cast are Nina Mae McKinney, Tony Wane, Eric Maturin, Robert Cochrane and Martin Walker.

"Sanders of the River" is so vivid, so majestic, so sincere, and such a shrewd intermingling of travel, romance and drama, that it cannot fail to be among the most successful films of the year.

TRAFFIC SAFETY CAMPAIGN

IS LAUNCHED IN NANKING

To Reduce Automobile
Accidents

Nanking. Concerned over the steady increase of automobile accidents in Nanking, local authorities have launched a traffic safety campaign for the purpose of imparting traffic knowledge to the public, diminishing confusion, and reducing the mortality rate due to traffic mishaps.

Sponsored jointly by the Metropolitan Police Headquarters, the Nanking Gendarmerie Headquarters, the Nanking Association for the Promotion of the New Life Movement, the Five-Province Highway Traffic Commission, and the Nanking Municipal Government, the campaign has gone into full swing after its inauguration at a ceremony held recently in the First City Park under the chairmanship of Mr. Ma Chao-chun, Mayor of Nanking.

ELABORATE PROGRAMME

The drive, which is to last for one week, has an elaborate programme, the principal items of which include a traffic safety exhibition, training of chauffeurs, strict enforcement of traffic regulations, and radio broadcasts.

The exhibition attracted no less than 50,000 visitors on the first day. Various charts, diagrams, and models, showing traffic accidents and safety measures are exhibited. Special members are detailed at the exhibition to explain to the visitors traffic rules. Handbills are also distributed.

To train the public in observing the traffic regulation special traffic police are posted at crossways and public grounds to see that they are properly enforced.

Over 2,000 chauffeurs have been summoned for training in traffic rules and driving for one week.

INCREASED TRAFFIC

The increasing population and number of vehicles, especially buses and motor cars, according to the local authorities, make it imperative to launch such a campaign in the capital to battle the alarming number of traffic hazards yearly. According to statistics, there are more than 2,000 motor cars and buses, 10,000 rickshaws, 8,000 bicycles, 300 taxicabs, 1,300 wheelbarrows, and 1,000 miscellaneous vehicles in Nanking. These 21,100 vehicles are constantly menacing the lives of the 1,000,000 Nanking residents.

In the opinion of Mr. Sung Hsi-shang, director of the Bureau of Public Works, the large number of traffic accidents is primarily due to the following reasons: (1) poor

KWANGCHOWWAN AFFAIR

CHINESE TO PRESENT CASE

To The League
Of Nations

Failing to get any redress from the French Government concerning the shooting incident at Kwangchowwan, the French leased territory in southern Kwangtung, last April, the Chinese populace there is now agitating for a presentation of the case to the arbitration of the League of Nations. It is also launching a campaign for the rendition of the bay.

The incident occurred on last April 23, when a crowd of 7,000 Chinese, who were approaching the Government House to petition for the cancellation of a new head tax, were allegedly fired upon by the French police. Seven were reported to have been killed and 15 seriously injured.

TURNED A DEAF EAR

After the incident, Mr. Kan Kai-hou, inspecting commissioner for foreign affairs in Kwangtung and Kwangsi, lodged a strong protest with the French Government, demanding the punishment of those responsible for the incident, compensation for the victims or their families, and reduction of taxes imposed upon the Chinese residents at Kwangchow Bay by the French authorities.

The French Government has apparently turned a deaf ear to the protest, giving so far no formal reply to the Kwangtung Government.

Growing impatient with the un-settlement of the case, the Chinese populace at Kwangchowwan is planning to wire the Chinese delegates, to the League of Nations at Geneva to lay the case before the League.

Meanwhile, Mr. Chih-li has been elected delegate to Nanking to petition the Central authorities for the rendition of the leased territory. The matter may be brought up at the forthcoming second plenary session of the C.E.C. for discussion.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION IN CHINA

MODEL SCHOOL PROVIDED

Subsidies To Be Granted

Nanking. The establishment of a model vocational school in Nanking at Government expense, nation-wide training of vocational teachers, and granting of subsidies to worthy vocational schools are the three salient points of a programme just mapped out by the Ministry of Education to promote vocational education in China.

Convinced that vocational education is bound to play an important role in the advancement of China's economic welfare, the ministry has decided to earmark $850,000 for the purpose. The sum is augmented by $100,000 contributed for the present fiscal year by the Sino-British Boxer Refund Commission. The commission has promised to allot a total of $250,000 for the establishment of the proposed model vocational school.

Of the sum of $950,000, $450,000 will be used to establish the vocational school, $100,000 to train vocational teachers, and $400,000 to subsidize worthy vocational schools.

According to tentative plans, the model vocational school, when established, will easily be the largest and best-equipped in this country. In this school, vocational courses which are not taught in public or private schools and which will help develop the nation's industry will be offered.

It has also been decided by the ministry that $280,000 be granted to agricultural and industrial vocational schools and $120,000 to business schools.

Applications for subsidies filed by public or private vocational schools will be considered by a special committee of seven to be appointed by the Ministry of Education.

H.M.S. GLASGOW

OLD ARTICLES TO BE RESTORED

London, June 19.

The launch at Greenock of H.M.S. Glasgow by Mrs. Baldwin recalls that the last ship of that name in the Navy List possessed several articles of silver presented by the city of Glasgow after she was commissioned in 1910. These are at present in the Art Galleries, and it is the intention of the authorities to hand them over for service in the wardroom when the new cruiser is completed and ready for sea. The silver consists of a shield, several punch bowls, and table ornaments modelled on the lines of the tree, bird, and fish in Glasgow's coat-of-arms.

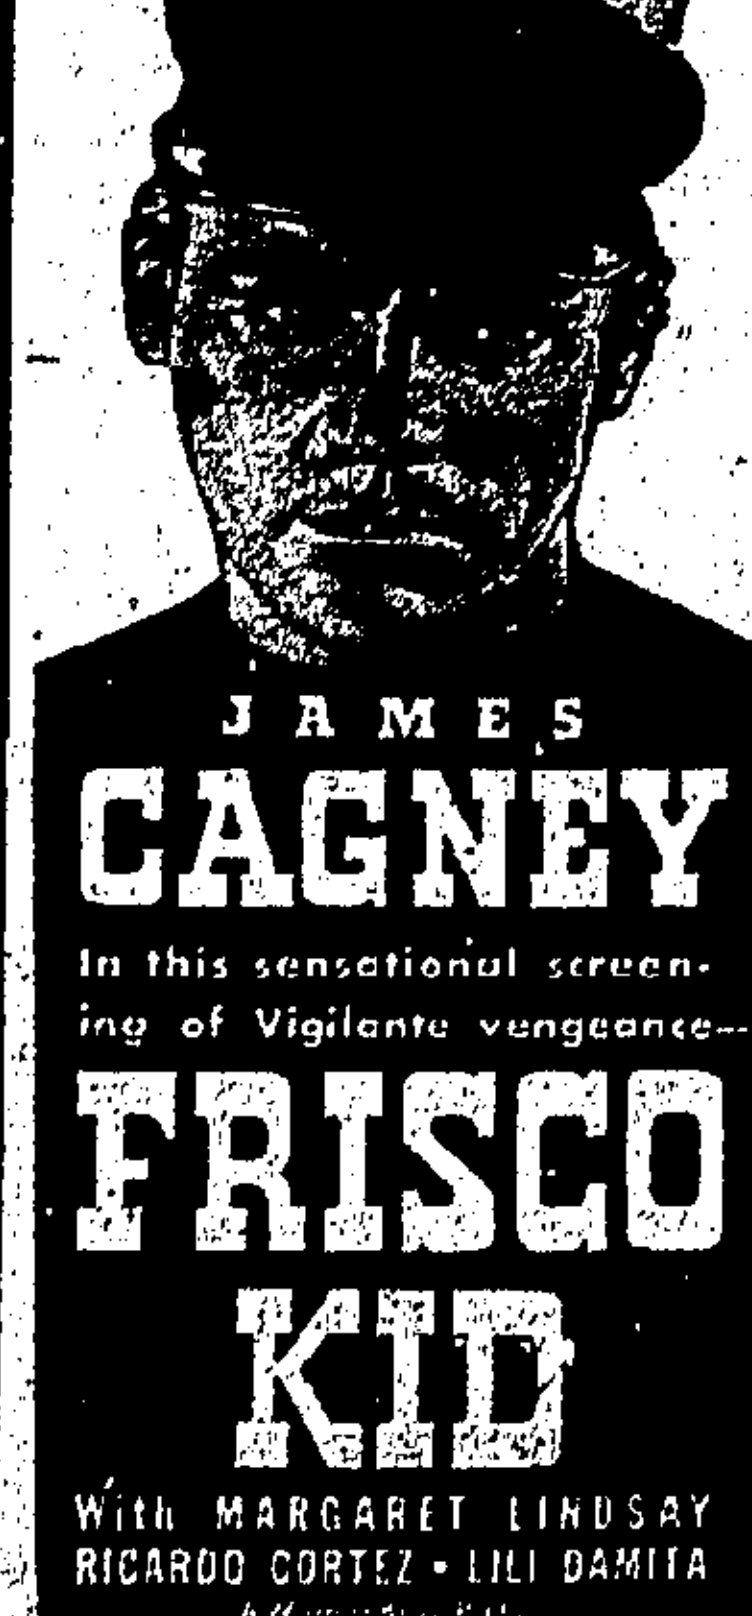

HONOURED NAVY NAME

The Scots Navy before the Act of Union included a 24-gun ship called the Glasgow, and five men-o-war since that time have borne the name of the city. Four of them saw active service, notably the Fairfield-built cruiser launched in 1909. She was in the engagement at Coronel in November, 1914, the following month saw her at the Falkland Isles, where she took part in the sinking of the Leipzig, and early in 1915 she assisted in the destruction of the Dresden at Juan Fernandez Island. After the war, and before going to the shipbreakers, she was a stokers' training ship at Portsmouth.

BRITISH AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY AND EXPORT TRADE

Three Firms Announce Orders From Ten Countries

MILITARY AND CIVIL AEROPLANES

London. Orders from ten countries, concerning large numbers of aeroplanes and aggregating in value hundreds of thousands of pounds sterling, are announced by three British aircraft building companies—fresh evidence that the Royal Air Force expansion programme is not drying up the sources of supply to overseas buyers. Since the War the British aircraft industry has been the world's chief supplier of all aeronautical material, and in the emergency created by the British government's demands for Air Force equipment the nation's aircraft and aero engine builders are not forgetting the claims of export business.

From the Avro company comes news of orders from Greece, Austria, Australia, Finland and Egypt. The most considerable of the new contracts affects the supply of 38 Anson twin-engined monoplanes to Australia. 33 of them for reconnaissance and bombing duties, and five for flying instruction. This is the aeroplane which is now going into service in large numbers with the Royal Air Force in England; primarily as equipment for seven new "general reconnaissance" squadrons, that will be charged with overseas patrol and coastal defence. It was developed from a civil machine, the Type 652 or Avator, which was designed and built by the Avro company for Imperial Airways. Its performance attracted governmental notice, and orders were placed for the military version. Thanks to fine streamlining and the adoption of a retractable undercarriage, the Anson attains high speed and general efficiency for relatively small expenditure of power; on the maximum output of two Siddeley Cheetah IX engines its level speed, with full load, is about 190 miles an hour and it cruises at 160 m.p.h. A similar aeroplane will shortly be delivered to the Finnish government for use, in the first place, as a training aircraft. It is equipped with dual flying controls so that pilots may be given instruction in the handling of modern twin-engined aircraft in readiness for the likely acquisition by Finland of some of the fastest present-day twin-engined bombers.

Greece is about to take delivery of a batch of thirty Tutor trainer biplanes, which are needed to inaugurate a scheme for the expansion of the Greek Air Force. Exceptionally severe flying trials preceded award of the contract to the Avro company, including ascents and landings directly across wind with half a gale blowing. In the hands of Mr. Thorn, Avro demonstration pilot, the Tutor readily accomplished this extreme feat. Trainer aeroplanes of several nations were submitted for consideration.

"MOTHER SHIP" FOR ROBOT PLANES

The Admiralty has decided to equip the old aircraft carrier "Argus" as a tender for pilotless aeroplanes of the kind used for anti-aircraft gunnery practice. Up to the present the vessel engaged in controlling the robot aircraft has been any available cruiser fitted with the special radio apparatus required for the work. That system worked well when the number of pilotless target planes was limited and firing practice was comparatively rare, but with the increase in the number of robots and the large increase in the amount of time devoted to anti-aircraft gunnery from warships provision of a special ship has become essential.

At least eight pilotless aeroplanes of the Queen Bee type will be carried on the converted "Argus." On board a ship will be special gear for launching and saving the robots and radio control apparatus to guide them as they fly. The "Argus" will carry an extra marking party and machines for recording accuracy of gunfire, and will also be fitted with modern landing apparatus enabling her to be used in the deck-landing training of Fleet Air Arm pilots. The Board of Admiralty believes that these changes will greatly facilitate training and advance further the science of anti-aircraft gunnery. In effect, the "Argus" will be a self-contained unit which may work with either of the British Fleets and will remove from the cruisers a great deal of work that now devolves upon them.

In external appearance the Queen Bee, which is built by the de Havilland company, is similar to the Tiger Moth light biplane which is used in the Royal Air Force and in several foreign air forces; the chief structural difference is that the Tiger Moth is made of metal and the pilotless plane of wood, which ensures, among other desirable qualities, that the machine will float if it be brought down on the water by gunfire. Like the Tiger Moth the Queen Bee has a Gipsy Major 130 h.p. four-cylinder air-cooled engine.

Metal projections visible on the fuselage are the catapult points for launching. A fixed aerial stretches from each wing-tip to the tail unit. The front cockpit is open and can be quickly fitted with flying controls for use by a human pilot. The rear cockpit is closed; it contains the secret mechanism which controls the machine on its course in obedience to radio signals sent from a ship or a battery. Maximum radius of controlled pilotless flight is about ten miles from the operating centre. Maximum level speed of the Queen Bee is about 100 m.p.h. and it can climb to a height of about 10,000 feet. Queen Bees are built with wheel or float undercarriages, according to the duties to be imposed on them.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNNERY

Critics have emphasized the relatively poor performance of the Queen Bee—speed about half that of the modern bomber and "ceiling" far lower—and have expressed doubts whether gunnery practice on targets differing so widely from the targets that would be presented in wartime is really worth while. The Admiralty's reply, as stated recently in the House of Commons by Lord Stanley, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty, is that "it is a great feat to be enabled to have a flying target at all." So far as is known, no other country has developed pilotless aircraft to the same level of efficiency.

Queen Bees are also to be adopted by the Army, and several of the machines concerned in the substantial order placed recently by the Air Ministry will be attached from time to time with anti-aircraft batteries, which in the past have had to be content with practice on a drone target towed on a long cable behind an aeroplane. Other possible uses are under consideration. A Queen Bee, for example, might be fitted with an automatic camera and used for close photographic reconnaissance over the lines, for which task its ability to rise from small fields and its small size—making it a difficult target—would suit it admirably.

VALUABLE RINGS STOLEN

COOK'S LAPSE

Lure Of Sum Chun

Twelve hours after having absconded from the residence where he was employed as a cook, a Chinese was arrested on suspicion of stealing two rings valued at £185, and on Saturday was brought before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on charges of theft and illegal pawning.

The accused man was Leung Qan Yau, 42, cook in the employ of Mrs. J. Russell, No. 8 Tak Shing Street, and Detective Sub-Inspector R. Cunningham, explained that the rings were alleged to have been stolen some time between June 20 and July 9. Both rings were platinum and set with diamonds. One had been purchased from Glasgow several years ago for £65, and the other from Shanghai for £100.

Accused was also charged with the theft of $8 between June 1 and July 9. The money it was stated was placed in an envelope in a drawer with the rings.

THE THEFTS

Relating the facts of the case, the prosecuting officer said that Leung had been employed by Mrs. Russell as a cook for the past sixteen months, having been taken over from the previous tenants. On May 20 complainant had occasion to wear the rings which she returned in the drawer. Three weeks ago she looked in the drawer and saw the rings. On June 1 she placed an envelope containing $8 in the drawer. This money was to be used for paying a bill, and accused was "authorised to make the payment. The bill collector however did not visit the house in June, and on July 9 complainant looked in the drawer to find that the envelope was missing. A further search of the drawer revealed that the two rings had also disappeared. The police were at once notified.

Before their arrival, however, accused absconded, but within twelve hours was arrested. He admitted pawning the two rings for $281.

According to a statement made to the police, the accused first pawned a ring on June 21 which he pawned for $100. On June 23 he took the other ring, for which he obtained $110. On June 25, following a run of luck at Sum Chun he redeemed the two rings. Three days later he however again pawned a ring for $120 which he redeemed on July 2.

On June 23 he again pawned a ring for $110, and on June 3 the second ring was pawned for $180. Both of these rings he had failed to redeem.

The case was remitted in order to afford Leung time to raise sufficient money to redeem the rings.

HEROIN PILLS

The case of Lai Kai, who was found with 70,000 heroin pills in his possession, was remanded for one week. In view of the seriousness of the charge, more time had to be taken to procure further evidence.

FALSE PRETENCES

Charged with obtaining $3 by false pretences from a married woman residing at No. 62 Apul Street, first floor on March 10, Li Chik Nam, 31, described as a school teacher, of No. 114 Apul Street, first floor, was remanded at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday when he appeared before Mr. Macfadyen.

The accused was alleged to have obtained the money on behalf of the "Yuk Tam" school by purporting to be an authorised person to make the collection.

A remand for 48 hours was granted.

BIG DRUGS SEIZURE

Four men and three women appeared on remand before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday charged with possession of a large quantity of heroin pills, at No. 3 Homunin Street, on July 3.

The case was remanded till Friday on the application of Revenue Officer J. P. O'Neill, for the prosecution.

Mr. Hugh-Jones appeared for the defence. It is understood that Mr. E. W. Hamilton, Superintendent of Imports and Exports Department will take charge of the case.

At a previous hearing it was intimated that two large boxes were unearthed, containing some 2,000 pills.

LODGING HOUSE

Ho Wing, 51, unemployed, was convicted on Saturday for keeping an unregistered common lodging house at 328, Queen's Rd., Central, second floor.

In prosecuting, Inspector Ellis said that the defendant charged $1.00 for each lodger, and it was strongly suspected that he harboured Chinese to be smuggled to Singapore. It was very difficult to keep track of them, and the charge was a serious one.

The defendant was fined $20, on three weeks.

ILLEGAL ENTRY

Nikawateri Kamel, 32, a Japanese seaman was charged at the Central Magistracy for unlawful entry into the Colony without a valid passport, and for failing to register within 72 hours of his arrival.

Inspector Nolloth asked for a remand because there was no Japanese interpreter in the court, and the case is to be heard on Monday.

BAG SNATCHER

Wong Chun, 30, who was convicted on Friday at the Central Magistracy for bag snatching, was again brought before the court on Saturday. The case was further remanded for another 48 hours to gather more evidence.

The defendant matched the bag of Mrs. Tam Siu-yu while she was walking along Causeway Road on Thursday, and threw her up the ground. He was chased and arrested by a Shantung constable.

The frequency of this type of larceny was deplored by Inspector Kirby, and the defendant was to be examined as to his fitness for a thrashing.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS

Speech Day At Mui Fong College

The annual speech day of the Mui Fong College was held in the presence of a very large gathering of parents, students and friends at the King's Theatre yesterday morning.

Mr. Aw Boon Haw, the Director of the School was present to distribute the certificates and prizes to the successful candidates, and complimented the College on the success of the year's good work.

After the distribution of certificates and prizes, an enjoyable musical concert, consisting of plays and songs was presented by the students of the College, ranging from performances by the Kindergarten classes to the Middle School classes. The items rendered by the little children won a great deal of applause, as a number of delightful songs were given in English.

THE HEADMASTER'S REPORT

In presenting the report on the work of the College for the year under review, the principal, Mr. Chan Tit Yat briefly said:—

Mr. Aw, Ladies and Gentlemen:

This is the nineteenth year of the existence of the school and the eighteenth time of our meeting together to report on our school work.

This is also the Graduation Day of the Senior Middle School (for the fifth time), the Junior Middle School (for the twelfth time), the Higher Primary School (for the sixteenth time), and the Kindergarten (for the fifth time) of the Girls' College; and the Junior Middle School and Higher Primary School, both for the first time of the Boys' College.

The Boys' College was started in September 1935 at Nos. 84-86, Bonham Road. The systems of management are the same as those of the Girls' College. The number of students registered during the year was 112.

A strict discipline was maintained in the school and strong encouragement were given to both studies and sports. Picnics were held regularly and friendly games of Basketball and Ping Pong are often played.

AN IMPORTANT OCCASION

As a school we are naturally responsible for the education of the young children. When our students leave school and go out into the world, they would become useful citizens of the society, and so we do not regard this as an ordinary meeting, but as an important occasion when we are able to return to the Society the children whom we have been trying our best to educate to become good citizens. As to the degree of satisfaction of the result of our work, we leave to the public to judge. So I humbly request your kind advice and direction, so as to bring the school to a stage of perfection. (Applause).

THE GIRLS' SCHOOL

Having dwelt on the improved conditions of the school and the regular attendance of the students, the Headmistress, Mrs. Chan Tit Yat reviewed the activities of the year and briefly said:—

Mr. Aw, Ladies and Gentlemen: The results obtained by the students throughout the year both in studies and sports were very gratifying—our Basketball Team won for the fourth time in succession the Championship of the Ladies Basketball Open League, and our Girl Guide Company (6th Hong Kong) won for the second time, the S.P.C.A. Cup in the Essay Competition this year.

Through the introduction by the School Director, Mr. Sun Fo, Mr. Aw Boon Haw has become a director of the school, and has donated $40,000 towards the building fund of a new school house.

Among the important visitors to the school during the year were Mr. Sun Fo, Head of the Legislative Yuan of China, Mr. Chu Chia Hua, former Minister of Communication, Mr. Foo Ping Sheung, Member of the Central Executive Committee, Mr. Chan Chiu Po, Chief Commissioner on Overseas Chinese Affairs, Mr. Aw Boon Haw, Manager of Messrs. Eng Aun Tong, Mr. Yu Wan and Mr. Lam Pak Chung, Inspectors of Vernacular Schools of Hong Kong, Mr. Wang Lun Shu, Head of Education Department of Kwangtung and Mr. Ma Hui Pun, Inspector of Schools of Kwangtung.

Besides the great number of apparatus of Physics and Chemistry for the use of the students at present, the Board of Trustees for the Boxer Indemnity Funds have kindly granted a full set of apparatus to the school, thus making the laboratory more fully equipped.

The discipline of the students was well maintained, their health well looked after, and competitions

CHINESE IN COURT

A Chinese stated to have been born and educated in New Zealand, who spoke perfect English in addition to Cantonese, appeared before Mr. Macfarlane at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday charged with possession of a pick-lock for an unlawful purpose at Tak Shing Street.

The man, Lam Ting Piu, 24 years of age, unemployed was stated to have been arrested by L.S.B. 489, who noted accused's suspicious conduct in the street.

Detective sub-inspector R. Cunningham stated that it was likely that accused was desperate because of hunger. According to information given to the authorities, defendant said that he was handed the means to leave New Zealand, by a grocer-shop named Wah Lee in Gray's Street, Auckland.

"Why he came to Hong Kong," said the prosecution officer, "he does not seem to be able to explain. He would like to go back to New Zealand but he has no money for the passage."

He accused had spent some time in Canton, looking for a job, without success.

Registering a conviction, the Magistrate remanded the accused in police custody for a week, to undergo a medical examination.

KRUPP LOCOMOTIVES

Mr. H. S. Yang, B. S. M. E., one of China's best known young railway engineers recently travelled to Germany to inspect the locomotives which are at present under construction at the Krupp works in Essen, destined for the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, of which Mr. Yang is a member in the Locomotive Department.

Through the activities of Messrs. Carlowitz and Co., constituted agents for China of the Krupp Steel Works, Krupp was awarded a contract for 10 heavy goods train locomotives of the Santa Fe type, class 2-10-2.

The 10 Krupp locomotives will run on the P. T. R. and will arrive at Tsingtao at the end of this year.

The Nanking Ministry of Railways, recognising the importance of having one of their inspecting and testing engineers present at the assembling of the locomotives, appointed Mr. Yang for this mission after a careful selection. (C. & C.)

A DINNER TO MEET DEALERS

DIRECTOR OF ZEISS-IKON WORKS ENTERTAINED

Interesting Film Shown

In honour of Herr Wilhelm Wohlfahrt, Director of the Zeiss-Ikon Works of Dresden, Messrs. Carlowitz & Co., on Saturday at 8 p.m. gave a reception to Photo-dealers and the Press with a Chinese Dinner at the Kam Loong Restaurant.

Amongst those present were Herr Schroeder, Manager, and Herr Ritter of Carlowitz, as well as Herr Embden of Canton, Herr W. Lange and Mr. Whiteside. Amongst the large party of Chinese guests were also a number of visitors from Canton.

In his address of welcome, Herr Wohlfahrt, who is also President of the Dresden Chamber of Trade and Industry, said that three points were essential for an agreeable working between supplier and consumer, they are:

- (1) confidence, i.e. confidence in the person and the matter,
- (2) understanding, i.e. "understanding for the requirements of the country as well as for the mentality and peculiarity of its inhabitants,
- (3) friendship, the latter being most important of all, for if such friendship prevails, the effect is mutual prosperity.

THE GROWTH

Herr Wohlfahrt closed his address by saying:

"If, as in this case, I travel round the world, it is not in order to enjoy myself or to take a holiday, and if I try my best to promote the sale of our cameras and other precision instruments, I do not do so in order to gain a personal profit, I consider myself just as much an employee of my firm as our mechanics or office clerks. It is to provide work for our 6,500 employees that I do my best, and to procure bread for them and their families, altogether 20,000 men, women and children."

At the conclusion of the dinner, Herr Wohlfahrt told the guests something of the growth of the Company, how he had started with 12 men in the firm of Contessa-Nettel, how in 1924 the four companies of Goetz, Ica, Contessa-Nettel and Erbenmann had joined with the 100 years old firm of Carl Zeiss in Jena to the Zeiss-Ikon Company on Shares. Beginning with 2,500 workers, they had employed five years later 3,500, and were now working 6,500. From the beginning the company had considered it its duty to produce only cameras and instruments of the highest possible perfection and precision.

A film was then shown, which depicted stages in the manufacturing of the various instruments which originate in the companies' factories, such as cameras, microscopes, lamps, adding-machines, special accessories for motor cars and lathes. The latest model of the Contax was then shown around.

The gathering dispersed at 10.30 p.m. and the guests were grateful at the insight gained into the working of the camera and precision instrument industry.

From Hong Kong Herr Wohlfahrt will proceed to Bali, Java, then to Malaya and by air from Calcutta to Germany.—(W.L.)

GIRL REFUSES TO DIVULGE INFORMATION

HEROIN PILLS POSSESSION

Disguising herself as a student, ostensibly on her way to a convent, Man Yau Lin, 19, of Canton, was arrested by Chief Revenue Officer Grimmitt in Jervois Street. In the rattan basket which she was carrying was found 10,000 heroin pills surrounded by some school books.

The defendant, before the court on Saturday, refused to divulge the origin of the drugs, nor the whereabouts of the person from whom she said she got them. Her story was that she was given the drugs by a woman, who had now departed to Canton, at the Yaumatei Ferry Station, and told to take them to Jervois Street.

POLICE OFFICIAL RETIRING

TRAFFIC INSPECTOR C. F. ALEXANDER

Splendid Record Of Service

The public in general and the Colony's motorists in particular will shortly be losing the services of Inspector Cecil Fraser Alexander, of the Hong Kong Police Traffic Department, who is proceeding to England on retirement in September after over 23 years service, during which lengthy period he has won the admiration and confidence of a wide circle of friends by his efficiency, unfailing courtesy, tact, and impartiality.

Though Inspector Alexander's connection with the police is told in but a few lines the data disclosed speak volumes for themselves.

Born on January 20, 1892, Inspector Alexander, more popularly known to all his friends as "Ace", was appointed a Police Constable on May 10, 1913 and arrived in Hong Kong on June 25 of the same year to take up his post in the Police Force as P. C. A148. Six years later he was promoted to Lance-Sergeant and became Police Sergeant on August 20, 1921. On New Year's Day 1925, he was appointed Sub-Inspector and attained the full rank of Inspector on May 9, 1929.

During the past 15 years he has been attached to the Traffic Department in which position he has more than proved his ability. He was a familiar figure in Police Courts during "traffic time" and in the conducting of inquiries arising out of fatal motor accidents. He never missed a day at the office and even on Bank holidays he called in in the event of their being any urgent business that needed immediate attention.

DECORATED RECENTLY

At the recent Police Inspection by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, Inspector Alexander was decorated with the 2nd Class Police Medal for exceptionally meritorious work in charge of the Traffic Department at Police Headquarters during the last five years. He also holds the 4th class Police medal.

Members of the Press who have enjoyed the friendship of Insp. Alexander will sustain a personal loss when he has left the shores of this Colony. Every morning the Press call at the Traffic Office and they are always met by the cheery face of Inspector Alexander. Every question asked is met with a "confident" answer. The Traffic Inspector possesses many fine qualities and has that enviable knack of never being flustered even at the most serious of accidents.

Inspector Alexander was also a familiar figure directing the masses of traffic at the race meetings, Government House and other public functions, which arduous duties he carried out with marked efficiency.

To come to the lighter side of things, Inspector Alexander was also a fine cricketer, being the mainstay of the Police Recreation Club team for the past fifteen years or more. He was a good bowler and wielded a fine bat. He won the Club batting championship in 1920, '21, '22, '23, '26, '27, '30 and '35, and the bowling championship in 1920, '27 and '35. He has been skipper of the team on many occasions and his popularity both on and off the field has been unbounded.

Inspector Alexander is going home to join his family. He will take with him the best wishes of both the foreign, Indian and Chinese communities.

She staunchly held to her story of Friday, told to C. R. O. Grimmitt, that she did not know the address where she had been staying, nor could she find her way to the residence if she wanted to.

C. R. O. Grimmitt was not inclined to believe her as she had on a new point of clothing when she was arrested. She must have changed into her new clothing just previous to the arrest, and the fact that she had only been in the Colony for four days meant that she stayed somewhere in the interim.

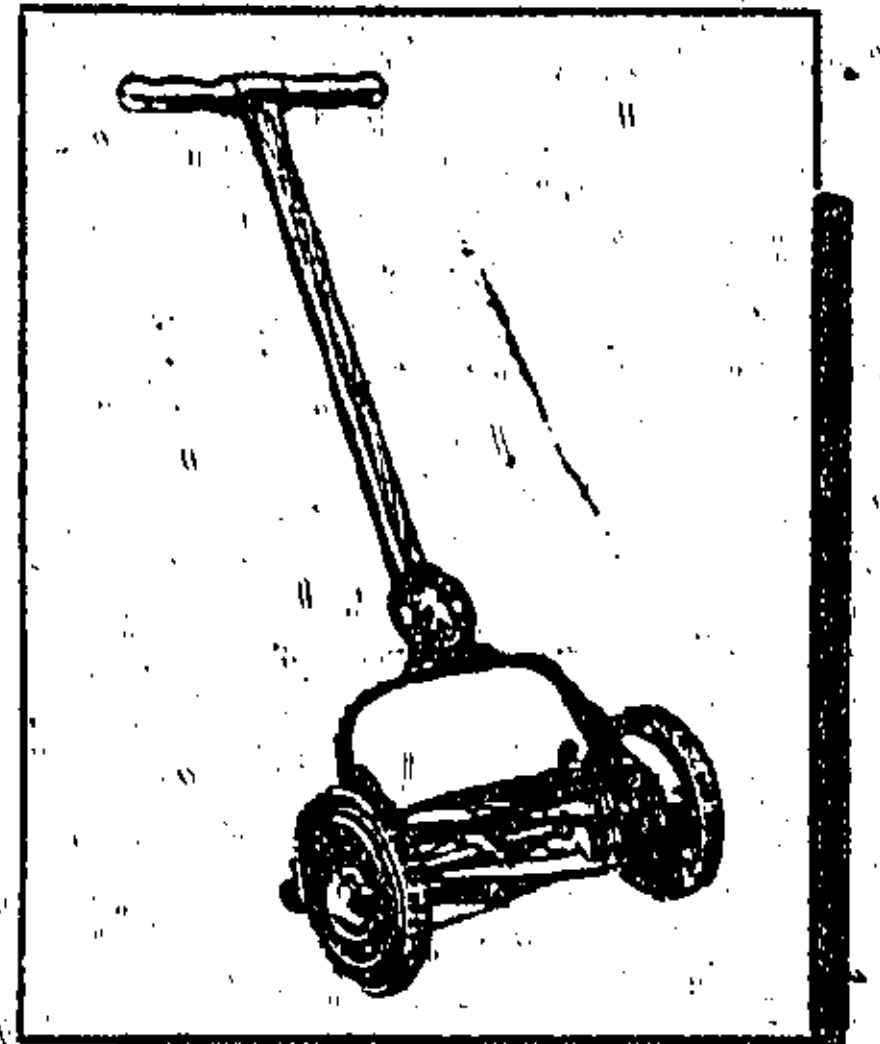

It was hardly probable that she was the owner of the pills, and if she gave the names of the real culprits and their addresses, she would not suffer the full consequences. She refused to tell any more.

The case was remanded for one week, and bail was set at $2500.

We have to record with deep regret the death of Mr. L. E. Longbottom which occurred yesterday afternoon at the Kowloon Hospital after a short illness. He closed his 50th year on May 4.

Mr. Longbottom will be remembered for his very kind disposition and a host of friends in the Colony will miss him very much. He was a member of the Civil Service Cricket Club, playing regularly in the lawn bowls tournaments. He was also connected with the Kowloon Golf Club and in the Yorkshiremen's Society he was a very popular committee member.

The deceased leaves a wife and daughter in the Colony to whom great sympathy will be extended in their sad bereavement.

WAR SERVICE

Serving in the Great War in France, the late Mr. Longbottom had three war medals—the 1914 Star, Great War Medal and Victory Medal, and he also held the Long Service and Good Conduct Medals. He rendered distinguished service, being mentioned in despatches while in France.

After the War, Mr. Longbottom was appointed Chief Draughtsman of the Public Works Department on September 24, 1924, and he arrived in the Colony at the end of the following month. He was Acting Inspector of Works for a period during 1925. His last home leave was taken in April 1933, terminating at Christmas time in the same year.

JEW AND ARABS

The Arab disorders in Palestine, which began a couple of months ago, are now assuming the proportions of a regular revolt. Each day brings its toll of turbulence in town and country: riots, ambushes, arson, shootings, snipings, and all manner of outrages against life and property are becoming endemic from Dan to Beersheba and from Jerusalem to Jaffa. The imposition of curfews, the arrest of agitators, the substantial reinforcement of the British forces have so far proved of little avail against the all-pervading manifestations of violence. With lawlessness such as this there can be no compromise; the first duty of the Mandatory Power is to restore order, and there can, of course, be no question of inquiry into grievances until such time as violence has been thoroughly stamped out. The Arab leaders have been offered, and have refused, the despatch of a delegation to London to represent their case except on condition that their main demands are conceded in advance. That is a condition which no Government could possibly admit. As an alternative the British Government have announced their intention of appointing a Royal Commission; but this, too, is provisionally in abeyance until the disorders have ceased. An inquiry would be a mere futile formality unless and until the Government are in a position to implement its findings.

The proposal for a Royal Commission has found no favour with the Arabs, because in their view no inquiry is necessary. Their quarrel, as it seems, is not so much with the administration of the Mandatory as with the terms of the Mandate itself. The Mandate prescribes the establishment in Palestine of a Jewish National Home, subject to safeguards for the civil and religious rights and material interests of the Arabs. What the Arabs want is a complete reversal of this whole policy. "Palestine for the Arabs" is the slogan of their present revolt. They are not primarily concerned as to whether or not the safeguards have been duly observed. It might conceivably be proved by the Commission that Jewish immigration has been proceeding at too great a pace and that specific damage has been suffered by the Arab community in consequence. But even if that were so, no recommendations of redress which might be made, short of a total stoppage of further immigration, would placate Arab animosity, at any rate so it would appear from its present temper. That is, of course, no reason why the inquiry should not be held. The terms of the Mandate cannot be abandoned and the Mandatory Power has no intention of abandoning them; but it is in every way desirable to discover whether any specific injuries have been suffered by the Arabs, and where possible, to remedy them.

It is not in dispute that the policy of a Jewish National Home in Palestine has brought great economic benefits to the country

PROCEEDINGS
IN CAMERAChina Leaders In Conference

Nanking, July 11.
The first regular session of the Central Executive Council was held at the party headquarters this morning, being attended by nearly all the delegates. The proceedings were in camera and nothing has hitherto been divulged as to what transpired.

General Tang Chih-sui, former commander of the 19th Route Army, arrived this morning from Shanghai. He dissociated himself from the movement for the alleged restoration of the 19th Route Army against Nanking.

Dr. H. H. Kung is giving a luncheon to-morrow in honour of Generals Tang Chih-sui, Yu Han-mou, Tang Shao-yi and Mr. Wang Chung-hui.

SUN FO PRESIDES

Party political affairs were reviewed at length at the first general session of the C.E.C. this morning, presided over by Mr. Sun Fo. Altogether 168 delegates attended the meeting and approved the membership of the sub-committee of five examining the proposals. There was no session in the afternoon, and the sub-committee are meeting to-morrow morning.

The next general session will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday under the presidency of Mr. Chu Cheng, at which three minutes' silence will be observed in memory of Mr. Hu Han-min. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek will deliver an address and Mr. Chang Chun will submit a report on foreign affairs. The reports of the various Yuan will also be presented.

PEACE HOPE

Nanking, July 12.
"So long as there is hope for peace, peace will not be abandoned and unless our sacrifices meet the final limit we will not lightly talk about sacrifice."

This is the gist of General Chan Chun's report on foreign affairs at yesterday's second plenary session. "Conditions for peace have their limits and if such limits are exceeded, we can only find resistance through sacrifice. Since my appointment I have maintained that, through diplomatic channels, find fundamental readjustment, and readjustment has been the main topic of Sino-Japanese negotiations," said the Foreign Minister.

as a whole. An enormous amount of capital has been imported into the country by the Jews; new industries have been created, unexploited land has been taken into cultivation, new towns have been built and new exports developed. Palestine has never been so prosperous in her history, and she was one of the few countries in the world which underwent an uninterrupted expansion during the recent universal slump. It may be that the lion's share of the advantage has gone to the Jews rather than to the Arabs; it may be that the Arabs, or many of them, are worse off than if the Jews had stayed away. These are questions on which it would be both improper and premature to express any opinion pending the report of the Royal Commission. But one cannot ignore that there is evidently room in Palestine for both Jews and Arabs, at any rate as far as the economic aspects of the matter are concerned. This affords encouragement for the belief that the problem of ensuring an amicable political accommodation between the two communities should not prove ultimately insoluble. The task of the Mandatory Power is to make both parties realise that it holds, and intends to hold, an absolutely even balance between them.

ARMED CAMP IN
HONGKOWSequel To Murder
Of JapaneseBLUEJACKETS IN COLLISION

Shanghai, July 11.
Hongkow, scene of the outbreak of hostilities in 1932, was once again transformed into a Japanese armed camp last night as a sequel to the murder of a Japanese business man, Mr. Kosaku Kayau. He was shot through the head by an unidentified assailant while carrying the year-old child of a friend and leading another baby by the hand. The children were not hurt.

A heavy force of Japanese blue-jackets, steel-helmeted and with fixed bayonets, were rushed from the Naval Landing Party headquarters to the area where the shooting occurred. There they patrolled, afoot and on motorcycles and lorries.

Two of the bluejackets, riding a motor-cycle, came into collision with a motor-car, driven by a Briton, Mr. C. N. Brooke, an official of the Chinese Customs, and were seriously injured.

In the course of the investigation of the shooting of Mr. Kayau, thirty or forty Chinese coolies who were sleeping on the pavement near the place of tragedy, have been rounded up for questioning.

DEATH IN HOSPITAL

Mr. Kayau was thirty-two years of age. He was rushed to hospital immediately after he was shot, and he died there at 1.05 a.m. to-day.

British police officers have gone to the scene of the crime and are co-operating with the Chinese police and the Japanese Consular and naval authorities in investigating the case.

The crime occurred in Chinese administered territory, adjoining the international settlement. A Japanese woman heard a muffled report and turned in time to see Mr. Kayau collapse in the street. But she saw no sign or any assailant.

The shooting has been followed by the usual Japanese warning to the Chinese authorities, who are urged to do their utmost to apprehend the culprit and also "to provide better protection for Japanese nationals in future."

FRESH TROUBLE

The Kayau incident has created a fresh source of Sino-Japanese friction, just when the Kuomintang has assembled at Nanking to discuss means of appeasing the South-west's demand for a war against Japan.

It is hoped the incident will be localised, so as to avoid further embarrassing the Nanking Government's efforts to compose internal differences.

As the investigation proceeds, further details are coming to light. It appears that a Japanese passer-by heard two shots and turning saw a black gown Chinese in flight.

The man rushed past him and as he did so turned and fired with a revolver, but without effect. This witness gave chase, but the black gown man vanished up an alleyway.

JAPANESE ACTION

Shanghai, July 11.
Vigorous representations about the Kayau murder were made by Mr. Sugihara, the acting Japanese Consul-General, to the Mayor, Mr. Wu Teh-chen, this morning, following a conference of the Japanese diplomatic, consular, military and naval officials.

Japanese residents are most indignant and the tension in Hongkow is acute. However, the murder is at present being treated as a local incident, not calling for diplomatic action at Nanking.

NAVAL THREAT

Owing to the Kayau incident the Japanese flagship Izumo, which was scheduled to leave for Formosa this morning, cancelled her departure. Vice-Admiral Kondo, Commander of a Japanese naval landing party, issued a stern warning to the Chinese authorities, that he would take whatever steps were necessary to protect Japanese life and property if they were unable to do so "or show a lack of good faith."

The anti-Japanese sentiment was discussed at a conference at Shanghai of the Japanese resident officers and military attaches throughout China, and the Kayau affair was reviewed.

A 32 calibre revolver was found in some bushes near the scene of last night's shooting.—Reuter.

SHADOWS BEFORE THE EVENT

HITLER RETIRES
TO BAVARIAPlanning A New
Pronouncement

EXPECTED SHORTLY

London, July 11.
Chancellor Hitler's flower-festooned villa at Berchtesgaden holds secrets which all the Chancelleries and secret service agents in Europe are seeking to discover. It is believed that the Fuehrer has retired to Bavaria in order to plan a new pronouncement on foreign policy, which may be made on the eve of the Locarno Conference and the Olympic Games.

At the Olympic meeting the Nazis are making a very great effort to emphasise to the world the peace-loving and prosperous side of German life.

TWO ALTERNATIVES

Germany feels that there are only two alternatives—either a conference of all five Locarno Powers aiming at the conclusion of the pact which Herr Hitler made the basis of his peace plan; or nothing. The Wilhelmstrasse is convinced that neither Britain nor Italy will agree to a one-sided solution, such as a firm alliance between Britain, Italy, France and Belgium against Germany, in the sense of the March Locarno, protocol, which is favoured in some French circles. The German view is that France fears an united Italo-German front on questions relating to the reform of the League.

Another factor perplexing the Chancelleries is the future of Austro-German relations, but according to Vienna despatches no agreement has been reached.

AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE

It appears that the recent Austro-German talks have broken down owing to Herr Hitler's refusal to give definite recognition to Austrian independence, but will be resumed in the autumn.

German diplomacy has suffered a setback through Dr. Greiser's truculence at Geneva, which has made a bad impression on the world generally, including Germany's Polish friends. Within 24 hours the Ministry of Propaganda soft-pedalled the German press jubilation. Meanwhile Rome despatches indicate that Signor Mussolini favours intervention, which may have received the secret benediction of the Wilhelmstrasse.

MONTREUX HITCH

The Anglo-Russian deadlock at the Montreux Conference is watched with keen interest. For the first time for many months Italy sympathises with British policy, as

SCHUSCHNIGG'S
BROADCASTVienna Message
Indications

Berlin, July 11.
Vienna messages foreshadow an important announcement to-night concerning the improvement in the Austro-German relations. Chancellor von Schuschnigg will broadcast at 9 p.m. from Vienna, where it is reliably stated that the announcement will, in part, take the form of a declaration that Germany is willing to respect Austrian independence.

The Austrian Legion in Germany will be dissolved, and Nazi propaganda in Austria will be abandoned; the 1,000-mark tax on tourists will be abolished; permission will be extended to Austrians in Germany freely to pass across the frontier, and Austrian Nazis shall be admitted to the Austrian Patriotic Front, the only political party permitted in Austria.

Dr. von Schuschnigg will probably not mention the Hapsburg restoration question as it is not imminent, but Germany in return has declared herself in principle that she is not against restoration.

—Reuter.

POWER BEHIND

Vienna, July 11.
It is believed that Signor Mussolini is the driving power in the Austro-German reconciliation agreement being broadcasted from Vienna to Berlin to-night. The agreement is bound weightily to change the European situation.

Its announcement is all the more surprising, as earlier reports were pessimistic in character as regards the likelihood of reaching common views. Herr von Papen, the German Minister at Vienna, Baron von Neurath (German Foreign Minister) and Herr von Ribbentrop (German Ambassador at Large) participated in the final talks with Chancellor Hitler at Berchtesgaden.

It is reported that a personal meeting between Chancellor Hitler and Chancellor von Schuschnigg is being arranged on German territory, possibly at Berchtesgaden early next month.

ALL SOLICITUDE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 25.

One of the notable things in Mr. Baldwin's speech at the close of the sanctions debate last night was his allusion to Mr. Eden. Already in Lenarkshire on Saturday he had pleaded for sympathy for the Foreign Secretary. Again last night he was all solicitude for Mr. Eden.

"You are very young," he had told him when he appointed him. "So far you have had nothing but roses, roses all the way, but before long you will get brickbats." Mr. Baldwin had told him this too, and like a Chesterfield advising his son he had admonished him to accept both with equal unconcern.

Never before can a British Foreign Secretary ("You have the most responsible post in Europe") have been set in the world's view as enjoying office on this kind of paternal suzerainty. Mr. Eden listened to it all with palpable embarrassment. The good intention behind the remarks was beyond question, but was it a real service to Mr. Eden to represent him as so young and dependent and as mortified now at the League's failure largely because he had been more sanguine than Mr. Baldwin with his years could permit himself to be?

For the first time a Glasgow University crew will compete this year at Henley. The competition entered is that for the Wyfold Cup. We wish the Glasgow four success, but whether that is achieved or not the University Boat Club are to be congratulated for their enterprise.

THE SCOTTISH NATIONALISTS

It seems to have occurred to the Scottish National Party that their movement is slow in gathering political influence. Sections of the membership are not happy over the position. Suggestions are being made that something should be done about it, and a conference is being arranged to review the whole question of the party's policy. It will take place probably in September. There are broadly three groups of opinion—one favouring a sort of loose alliance with either the Liberal or the Labour Party, another the continuance of the existing independent action, and a third inclined to a more revolutionary attitude.

AUSTRIA-GERMANY JOIN HANDS

Startling Development
In EuropeTHREE POINTS OF AGREEMENTItalian Influence Behind
The Rapprochement

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Berlin, July 11.

In the name of the Reichs Government, the Minister for Propaganda, Dr. Goebbels, broadcast on Saturday night the following declarations.

"Under the conviction that the development and condition of Europe towards the maintenance of peace will be thereby essentially advanced and in the belief that they are serving the many-sided mutual interests of the two German States, the Government of the German Reich and the Federal State of Austria have decided to restore their relationships to normal and friendly basis. For this reason it is declared:

ROME PACT UNAFFECTED

"1. In the sense of the declarations of the Fuehrer and Reichs Chancellor of May 21, 1935, the German Government recognises the full sovereignty of the Austrian Federal State;

"2. Each of the two Governments regards the political system existing in the other country, including the question of Austrian National Socialism as the internal affair of the other country on which it will not seek to exercise any influence directly or indirectly;

"3. The Austrian Federal Government will in general direct its policy, in particular with regard to the German Reich, in conformity with the fact that the Austrian State avows itself to be a German State. Thereby however, the Rome Protocol of 1934 and its annexes of 1936 as well as the attitude of Austria towards Italy and Hungary as partners of this protocol are unaffected.

"In view of the fact that a relaxation of the tension desired by both sides could only be attained if certain preliminary conditions are fulfilled by both governments, the Reichs Government and the Austrian Federal Government agree to establish conditions essential thereto by a series of special measures to be enacted."

It is understood that the first steps in this direction will be taken by a gentlemen's agreement and will concern tourist traffic, symbols of sovereignty, and national anthems.

Furthermore in continuation of these agreements the question of closer economic relations between the two countries will be discussed.

SIMULTANEOUS BROADCAST

London, July 11.
Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg and Dr. Joseph Goebbels simultaneously broadcast from Vienna and Berlin respectively and read an identical communique on the Austro-German agreement prefixed by the belief that European tension will be thereby lessened.

The points of the communique follows firstly, that Germany recognises the full sovereignty of Austria; secondly, each undertakes not to interfere directly or indirectly in the internal political developments of the other including the question of Austrian national socialism; thirdly, Austria to maintain her policy, particularly towards Germany, on the fundamental idea that Austria recognises herself as a German state and thus the Rome protocol of 1934 and its annexes of 1936 as well as the position of Austria, Italy and Hungary as partners thereto will not be disturbed.

Finally the communique fore-shadows unspecified individual measures to implement the agreement.—Reuters

AMNESTY PROBLEM

Berlin, July 11.

GERMAN REPRESENTATIVE

Vienna, July 11.

The news of the Austro-German rapprochement was favourably received in London political circles which are not blind to the fact that the agreement means a considerable change in the Reichs attitude towards Austria.

CLOSER BOND

Rome, July 11.

Solid satisfaction is widespread over the Austro-German agreement.

Italy is closely connected therewith, but did not expect such swift consummation of negotiations.

As German recognition of Austrian independence has been the only difficulty between Italy and Germany, the latest development brings Italy and Germany close together.

The immediate consequences to be expected are firstly, Italy will decline the invitation to the forthcoming Locarno Conference unless Germany is admitted; secondly, Italy will abandon the reconstruction of the Stresa front.

It is officially denied that Signor Mussolini intends to resuscitate the Four-Power Pact between Italy, France, Germany and Britain, and despite the repeal of sanctions Italy is still far from entering on general European co-operation.—Reuters

PRESS DISCLOSURE

Rome, July 11.

Welcoming the Austro-German agreement, Signor Mussolini's paper "Popolo d'Italia" has an inspired article which says the question was discussed between Dr. Schuschnigg and Signor Mussolini at Rocca delle Caminate in June. Italy was kept informed of the progress of negotiations, and the Italian Government claims an active part in the agreement and common policy which will follow.—Reuters

London, July 11.

With regard to an announcement that General Graziani has issued a decree restricting the use of all save Italian Government wireless stations in Addis Ababa, no objection is apparently raised against continuance of the Legation, wireless stations to receive messages but there is a question of fifteen days ban on transmissions.

So far as the British Legation is concerned the matter is being taken up in Rome and meanwhile the Legation is continuing to transmit its messages, while the British Government is also in communication with the Governments of United States, France and Germany whose Legations in Addis Ababa are also concerned.—British Wireless

WASHINGTON ADVISED

Addis Ababa, July 11.

Marshal Graziani, the Viceroy of Abyssinia, has issued an order forbidding the use of private wireless transmitting sets in Abyssinia, which might affect the wireless transmitters of the various Legations, though so far their use has not been interrupted.

The United States Minister has informed the Government at Washington that he has been requested to close the wireless transmission of his Legation for 15 days, but is allowed to receive messages from Washington.—Reuters Bulletin Service

ADDRESS TO
AUSTRIADr. Schuschnigg's
BroadcastAGREEMENT TEXT
ANNOUNCED

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Vienna, July 12.

Precisely at 9 p.m. on Saturday, Federal Chancellor, Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg, began to broadcast his address to the whole of the Austrian people announcing the clarification of the political relationship between Austria and Germany.

Dr. Schuschnigg first read the text of the agreement reached between Austria and Germany. Thereupon the Chancellor said: "I know that I speak in the name of all upright and clear-thinking Austrians when I express the confident hope that the return of normal and friendly relations with the German Reich will not only promote the welfare of the two German states, and thereby the whole German people; but also will be a valuable contribution to European peace, to serve which, in the interests of our country, has always been the policy of this government."

ALWAYS GERMAN

In the course of his further pronouncement, Dr. Schuschnigg emphasised that Austria had never left any doubt that it feels itself to be German, and to-day had nothing different to say on that score.

The Chancellor declared that the question of a political amnesty now called for immediate consideration in view of the appeal to all Austrians irrespective of the attitude towards the regime hitherto to devote their entire strength in building up the country within the framework of the Fatherland front.

"It," concluded Schuschnigg, "this agreement that regulates relationships between Austria and the German Reich proves to be what we promise ourselves it will be, then it will not only promote well-being between Germany and Austria, but will as well serve the cause of peace throughout Europe."

NEW APPOINTMENTS

The Chancellor later announced the extension of the Federal Government by the inclusion of the President of the War Archives, State Councillor Glaise-Horstenaus, as minister without portfolio, while Chief of the Federal Chancellery, Guido Schmidt, was appointed State Secretary for Foreign Affairs. Schmidt enjoys Schuschnigg's personal confidence, having always accompanied the Chancellor on diplomatic missions to other countries, while Glaise-Horstenaus was well-known for his unceasing efforts to effect an understanding between the two German states.—Transocean News Service

GERMAN PRESS SATISFACTION

"Bridge Between Berlin And Vienna"ENDURING PILLARS FOR
THE FUTUREReconciliation Without Third Party Interference

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Berlin, July 12.

The German press on Sunday records the relationship of Austria and Germany with demonstrations of keenest satisfaction. This is seen strikingly in headlines among which might be read, "Bridge between Berlin and Vienna," "Contribution to peace," "Austria avows itself German state," "Peace among Germans," "A great success."

All papers are devoting leading articles to examining the political significance of the event, every writer emphasising the extreme importance of this development for the tranquillisation of Europe.

WISE STATESMANSHIP

"Voelkischer Beobachter," organ of the Nazi Party, writes: "Adolf Hitler has repeatedly said with unmistakable clearness that the Reich has a natural wish to arrive at normal relations with Vienna."

In this connection the Fuehrer said in his declaration on May 21, 1935, "Germany has neither the intention nor the wish to interfere in Austria's internal affairs or to annex Austria or to effect Anschluss." The Fuehrer declared this because the Nazis do not want any solution based on coercion, but is aware that lasting peace in Europe is only possible on the basis of right of self-determination of all peoples without exception.

A GERMAN STATE

"Berliner Tageblatt" says: "The three points on which the German-Austrian declaration consists will form enduring pillars on which the future Austro-German relations will rest. In point three Austria avows herself to be a German state. This has never been said at any more significant juncture in the life of the young republic. All attempts made in the last few years to divert Austria from her destiny are thus at one stroke swept into the waste paper basket."

"Boerser Zeitung" emphasizes that "the fact that this reconciliation is effected without interference of a third party and without intermediation of Geneva is in accord with the wishes of all Germans."

BRITISH PRESS VIEWS

London, July 12.

The Austro-German agreement is splashed in the Sunday papers.

tion, which are most numerous amongst office workers.

A hundred thousand workers on public relief were also sent home after many had collapsed.

WATER FAMINE

A serious water famine threatens New York State, and the State Health Department has ordered immediate curtailment of the use of water.

By mid-day the death toll from the intense heat had passed the 300 mark. A total of 303 deaths was recorded.

Meanwhile forest fires have ruined thousands of acres of timber and crop and cattle losses are mounting to a fabulous total.—Reuters

FIGHT ANNOUNCED

New York, July 10.

The death roll in the heat waves is now over 375.

One of the victims was Mr. Joe Humphries, well-known Madison Square Garden prize fight announcer, who died of a heart attack brought on by the heat.

It is claimed that he introduced every heavyweight champion since John L. Sullivan.—Reuters

WORK FOUND

Washington, July 10.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt announced at a press conference this afternoon that 75,000 jobs had been authorised in the drought area. Already 18,500 men were employed, he said.

Authorities assert that already more than 570,000 farms have been ravaged by the drought.—Reuters

While the "Sunday Times" describes it as an act of wise statesmanship and congratulates Chancellor Hitler, the "Sunday Dispatch" urges the British Government to sever all entanglements which may drag us needlessly into antagonism with the new bloc. A world agreement is doubtless rendered possible by a secret Italo-German agreement and its effect upon Europe inevitably will be far-reaching and the situation altered so radically that it is likely that the Locarno meeting will have to be postponed.

As far as Britain is concerned there can be nothing but satisfaction that Germany has undertaken to respect Austria's rights.

"Reynolds News": The Austro-German alliance is inspired by Mussolini as another step in his policy of forming a Fascist common front.

"Sunday Referee": Hitler, driven by Mussolini, has agreed to sign what virtually is his retreat from Austria.—Reuters

A DAY OF HIGH SCORING AT LAWN BOWLS

Three New Records Created CHAMPIONS' SMASHING WIN

Saturday was indeed a day of high scoring in the Lawn Bowls Leagues, when no less than three new records for the present season were created.

Craigengower Cricket Club once again secured a treble win, and their 'A's' triumph over their nearest rivals, the Kowloon Bowling Green by 90 shots to 36 is a new team aggregate record. The defeat of the Bowling Green is indeed a humiliating one for them, as they were conceded rosy chances of inflicting the first defeat of the season on the Valley team prior to the game. As it was the winners played like one man and were heads and shoulders above the losers.

The Indians easily accounted for the Civil Servants, winning by 89 shots to 43 in which two new records were established by Dallas's rink. This rink's win broke both the rink win and rink score records with new scores of 36 and 43 shots respectively.

Recreio, C.C.C. 'B' and Taikoo Dock were the other senior teams to win. Sixes were common on the day.

A six followed by a seven enabled R. F. Luz to beat L. Guy by 23 shots, while a four followed by a seven was mainly responsible for M. Y. Adal's win over J. F. McGowan by six shots. W. E. Hollands also had a seven, beating F. X. Silva by 24 to 18. Sixes were recorded by W. Gill, R. Basa, J. A. R. Selby, J. Bentley, C. H. Basto, F. X. Soares, and A. E. Carey.

An invitation was sent to some thirty of the Colony's bowling enthusiasts to attend this opening by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Lai Im Tong.

At half past four in the afternoon, lawn bowls was successfully launched by the following gentlemen playing the first games: Messrs. Guy, Watson, Meyer, Remedios, Logan, Grimmer, Nissim, Muskett, F. With the intention of keeping the opening informal, there was nothing official attached to the advent of lawn bowls, which makes the sporting requirements of the Kowloon Tong Garden Association now complete.

The bowling green will become faster through regular usage, and some interesting games will be witnessed later.

Among the interested spectators were: Mrs. F. W. Stapleton, Mrs. Helen Chan, Mrs. Field, and Mrs. Silkstone.

Japanese Nose Out Americans

In a tight game yesterday, the Japanese Young Men's Association defeated the Americans by eight runs to seven, after being led six runs to three at the end of the fifth innings.

At the commencement of the 8th innings, it looked as if the American nine would win the game, they scored another run but the Nippon boys registered two runs, and in the next innings obtained a further two runs to tie the game.

An extra innings had to be called during which the Japanese got the run necessary for victory.

Score by innings:

Americans 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

Tulsa Wins Double-Header

The Overseas Chinese baseball nine put up a valiant fight against the U.S.S. Tulsa yesterday afternoon at Causeway Bay, and extended them to a ten inning game before they were downed by 5 to 3.

The sailors were expected to win this game, but they had to play their utmost. The score was 1-1 until the ninth inning, when the Tulsa scored four more runs.

The Chinese made a valiant bid to overcome this lead but only scored two more runs.

Score by innings:

U.S.S. Tulsa 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 runs

Overseas Chinese

0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 hits

With their second string battery, the Tulsa defeated the Eastern nine by the score of 7-2.

M. Al Arculli was unable to strike out any of the sailors, but gave a good account of himself in fielding.

The Tulsa nine was much too good for the Eastern, but the latter team has not been playing baseball long.

Score by innings:

CLOSE FINISHES WITNESSED

CORPS INFANTRY WIN

Governor Present

Close finishes and keen competition marked the Annual Aquatic Sports of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps which was held on Saturday night at the V.R.C. Bath attended by many, including H.E. the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, and Lady Caldecott, attended by Captain W. J. R. O'Grady, A.D.C., H.E. the G.O.C., Major-General A. W. Bartholomew and Mrs. Bartholomew and party, attended by Lieut. J. P. Howarth, R.A., A.D.C., Lieut.-Col. H. B. L. Dowling, Commandant of the H.K.V.D.C., and Major E. J. R. Mitchell, President of the Swimming Committee.

The Corps Infantry carried off the Inter-Unit Swimming Cup with 15 points as against 10 by the Static Machine Guns. The winners were given very stiff opposition before they were able to clinch the title.

The whole programme was carried out without a hitch and much disappointment was felt when due to lack of entries the 50 Yards Free Style Championship of the Nursing Detachment had to be called off.

A CLOSE RACE

In one of the closest finishes witnessed at the Bath, the Static Machine Guns narrowly defeated the Corps Infantry by a touch in the 300 Yards Relay. It was a touch and go affair and the slight advantage given by S. V. Gittins and Anslow enabled the winners to hold out.

Another interesting item on the programme was the High Diving which was won by the Corps Infantry. In this event the Coastal Defence came in for their share of the spoils.

An amusing item was the pillow fight which was won by R. Andrews. In the next event E. M. Marques gave the Corps Infantry victory when he beat S. V. Gittins in the Three Styles Relay.

The last event on the programme was the final of the Inter-Unit water-polo championship, which was won by the Corps Infantry in a fast and thrilling game against the Static Machine Guns, who went down fighting gamely by 4 goals to 1.

J. D. Remedios was the star of the game, scoring all four of the winners' goals as the result of solo efforts, while H. Owen Hughes, in goal, and S. V. Gittins, in the attack, shone for the losers.

HYDRAULIC LABORATORY IN NANKING

TO TACKLE PROBLEMS OF IRRIGATION

Flood-Prevention In China

Nanking.
The National Economic Council has completed plans for the erection of a hydraulic laboratory in Nanking to tackle various hydraulic problems confronting China to-day.

The laboratory is to be constructed at a total cost of $400,000 out of the Netherlands-Boxer Refunds. Half of the money will be for the building and the other half for equipments.

It will be located at Chingliang-shan, a hilly region in Nanking. The construction work started some time ago, is expected to be completed in the summer of 1937.

When completed, the "Lab" will easily be the largest of its kind in China. It will boast of every facility to solve problems connected with projects for the improvement of river conditions in this country.

A MODEL ONE
Pending the completion of the laboratory, the N.E.C. has a small research station in the National Central University to handle such hydraulic problems as awaiting immediate solution. Under the able directorship of Mr. N. A. Van den Heuvel, a Dutch hydraulic expert, who is ably assisted by several Chinese engineers, the station has during the last five months conducted fruitful experiments on problems connected with various improvement projects on the Yangtze and with the scheme for a sluice along the Hwai River.

The station, 38 meters long and 18 meters wide, is equipped with two models, one of the Yangtze sluice at the Hwai River outlet and the other of the Matang dyke near the Anhwei-Kiangsu border along the Yangtze River.

All the models are made in exact proportion to actual river conditions with current in the models artificially created by water pumped in from a reservoir. The water pressure is kept constant by means of a diverting tube. The velocity and volume of the flow, also in exact proportion to the river conditions, are controlled by special sluices.

The Hwai sluice experiment is to find out means of minimizing the effect of erosion caused by water eddies in order to protect the sluice itself.

EXCELLENT RESULTS
The real sluice is constructed to control the flow of water from the Hungtsh lake into the Hwai River outlet, it being located at Yangtze, where the Grand Canal meets the Hwai River outlet. As a result of a three-month experiment, excellent results are said to have been achieved.

The Matang dyke experiment is connected with the construction of spur dykes to facilitate navigation in that part of the Yangtze. At Matang, the river splits into three branches with the result that the flow in the main channel is retarded.

Other problems that the station will take up shortly are connected with the project of the construction of a movable dam at Sa. Ho, bordering on the Hungtsh Lake, as a part of the Hwai River conservancy work, the research on loess, and the tackling of the Yellow River conservancy problem and others.

In Tientsin, a similar laboratory known as the North China Hydraulic Research Station, which was inaugurated last year, is now doing valuable work on conservancy problems in North China.—Central News Agency.

JESSE OWENS AGAIN

Brilliant Double At Olympic Trials

New York, July 11.
In the American amateur athletic championships, constituting the Olympic trial finals, the negro Jesse Owens, of Ohio University, secured a brilliant double. He did the 100 metres in 10.4 seconds and cleared 25 feet 10-3/4 inches in the high jump.

In the final of the hammer throw Henry Dreyer, of the New York Athletic Club, hurled a distance of 171 feet 11-1/2 inches.—Reuter.

EMPIRE SOCIETIES TO CO-OPERATE

WORKING RELATIONS

At the recent annual meeting of the Fellows of the Royal Empire Society held in London, the chairman of the council, Sir Archibald Weigall, K.C.M.G., announced the recommendations of the Joint Advisory Committee on working relations with the Overseas League.

There will be co-operation in various matters and avoidance of visits by Travelling Commissioners to Overseas countries at the same time. The internal affairs of the two Societies remain as they were.

The Hon. Treasurer stated that for the Society's magnificent new home in Northumberland Avenue, not only money towards the Building Fund, but also gifts in kind were most acceptable. All the principal rooms will be panelled with woods that have been presented from different parts of the Empire. The "Ladies' Drawing Room, for instance, is going to be panelled with the beautiful silver wood of India, and Lady Weigall has generously undertaken to pay for the entire furnishing of that room.

Upon Mr. Bond enquiring who would furnish another room, Sir James Leigh Wood intimated that he would be responsible for a bedroom, while a number of Fellows expressed their willingness to pay for some of the large number of chairs required for the Assembly Hall and Dining Room.

A new branch of the Society has been established in Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, its initiator being Mrs. Tawse Jollie, who will be its first Honorary Secretary.

At the first annual meeting of the Auckland (N.Z.) branch it was announced that the first year's work had resulted in the membership being more than doubled.

British Aircraft
world's aerodromes. The airport building is a round structure, resembling a martello tower, which rises in shallow tiers to a tall central building that houses the aerodrome control offices, the radio room and the weather station. Round the edge of the outer circle of the building pass the air-liners, moving always in the same direction and halting at one gangway or another to load or unload.

Three of the six gangways that radiate from the ground floor are used for arrivals and have side doors through which passengers pass for customs and passport examination; departing passengers use the other three gangways, which have telescopic awnings to keep passengers under cover from wind and rain till they reach the steps into the aeroplane. A seventh gangway lies below ground level and gives access between the airport building and the railway station, which lies on a main line to the Victoria terminus in London. All of the office accommodation required at a terminal airport is ingeniously contrived on two floors outside the central structure. Here are the booths of the aircraft operating companies, the waiting lounge, restaurant, bar, customs hall, kitchen, administrative offices and immigration offices. The windows on the second floor are set at an angle of 80 deg. from the horizontal to avoid reflection, giving the officials a view in all directions.

Unlike most airports, the building is not located at the edge of the flying field but in a recess of land on one side. The aerodrome is approximately 200 yards away; it gives runs of as much as 1,200 yards for take-off and landing. Between the aerodrome proper and the airport building are two concrete runways which pass the building on opposite sides and meet behind it, thereby providing a "one way street" for aircraft loading and unloading at the gangways.

The Fusiliers were in very poor form, and on numerous occasions failed to convert absolute sitters.

LORD SEMPILL'S VENTURE

Australia Flight Interrupted

BACK AT HANWORTH

Vienna, July 10.
Lord Sempill has abandoned his attempt on the record for the flight to Australia. It is understood, owing to a defect in connection with the wings of his machine, and has decided to return to London immediately.

It was found that the fabric of the wings had cracked, making a long-distance flight unsafe. The damage has been temporarily repaired and Lord Sempill is flying back to England to-night.

A British Wireless message stated that Lord Sempill left Hanworth aerodrome at four o'clock in the afternoon with three companions in an attempt to fly to Melbourne in a schedule of less than 70 flying hours. Lord Sempill was flying a "Cranston" monoplane "Croydon" 10-seater monoplane, which is Britain's fastest air liner and has a cruising speed of 190 miles an hour and a top speed of 210.

NEW ATTEMPT

Vienna, July 11.
Lord Sempill took off at 2.30 a.m. for London. He told Reuters that he would have the damage repaired in London and would then immediately make a new attempt.

He found that the fabric of his wings had cracked, making a long distance flight unsafe. The damage was temporarily repaired to enable him to fly back to England.

PETROL SUPPLY DEFECT

London, July 11.
Lord Sempill has arrived back at Hanworth from Vienna. Interviewed by Reuters, he stated there was no failure of any part of the structure of the machine discovered when he reached Vienna ahead of schedule. The cause of the defect in the machine was the auxiliary petrol supply not working properly and the defect could not be remedied without returning to the aerodrome.

ERRATIC TREND OF FRANC

Exchange Circles Puzzled

London, July 11.
The sudden relapse of the franc in terms of sterling, after a period of comparative firmness, is at present puzzling the foreign exchange interests. Some are inclined to attribute the reaction to a feeling of extreme nervousness regarding the outcome of the Finance Minister's "Baby Bond" venture, pointing out that M. Vincent Auriol virtually admitted that the failure of the issue would entail drastic measures, even possibly devaluation.

On the contrary, others are of the opinion that the present is too early to judge how the issue is faring, and are more inclined to attribute the easiness of the franc to technical causes in connection with the two-day holiday occasioned by the July 14 celebrations.

SIR ISAAC NEWTON

THE SCOTTISH MINT

London, June 20.
Included in an important collection of Newton papers and manuscripts which will be auctioned at Sotheby's next month there is a section of "particular Scottish interest dealing with the establishment of a mint in Scotland after the Union and the recoinage of Scottish money. A 3-page autograph by Sir Isaac Newton as Master of the Mint gives "an account of the Scottish money," and there is a mass of correspondence relating to the operations of the Edinburgh Mint, including an autograph copy of a letter from Newton recommending the appointment of Dr. Gregory, Professor of Astronomy at Oxford, "to oversee the first operations for recoinage of the Scottish money at Edinburgh." During his period at the Mint Newton received comprehensive reports on the development of Sir John Erskine's silver mines at Alva.

DELEGATE TO LEAGUE

Madariaga Notifies Resignation

(Hong Kong Daily Press) Special

Madrid, July 11.
The Spanish delegate to the League of Nations, Senor de Madariaga, announced his resignation yesterday. The resignation according to a statement issued by Senor de Madariaga, is due to the severe attacks made by the popular press organs on himself.

The press asserted that Senor de Madariaga had prepared a memorandum containing proposals for the reform of the League of Nations, while Senor de Madariaga maintains that the document in question is merely the protocol of a conversation that had taken place between the delegates of several neutral Powers, and with the drafting of which he had been charged.

When the Foreign Minister, Senor Barcia, declared, on the publication of the note, that he had not been informed of the contents of the document, which merely reflected Senor de Madariaga's private opinion and by no means represented the official Spanish viewpoint, this brought forth a reply from Senor de Madariaga that he had assumed responsibility for the note merely in order to give the Spanish Government greater freedom of action.

The statement issued by Senor de Madariaga announcing his resignation concludes by expressing "unshakable confidence in the League of Nations, which alone can save the world from an unprecedented catastrophe."

EASILY PLEASED

HUMOUR IN COMMONS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 25.
The House of Commons is a queer place, and it has some queer and sometimes rather intensive ideas of humour. It has been reported that during Tuesday's debate many of its members were vastly and openly amused when Sir John Simon's voice gave way in the course of what must have been a speech of considerable length. But that was not the only merry jest that moved the faithful Commons to uncontrollable laughter; in one comment on the proceedings we read:
